

Roughly Used Up.

Sam Betts, the cowboy preacher, who went from Fayette over into Raleigh to preach Democracy, met with rough treatment Saturday while making one of his wild speeches on the court house steps at Beckley. He pointed out Sheriff Campbell as a drunkard and became so abusive that Mr. Campbell took him by the collar and pitched him off the steps. He fell so heavily that his collar bone was broken and he had to be taken to the hospital—Journal.

For Sale.

Two heavy draft colts weight about 1200 lbs, well broken, also a light draft riding and driving horse 2 years old at my farm is ay 1, 1861, Virginia has ap-paid off or retired obliof the undivided state ting, in the aggregate, in-interest, to a sum in ex-$25,000,000."

case has attracted wide-attention and its settle-the highest tribunal is with great interest.

brief on demurrer filed late of West Virginia, ons for denying the re-ty for the indebtedness principal among them contention that the ourt has no authority dispute.

ince, and after refer-erous authorities in the demurrer, the

"That this court has on of the parties to atter of the action,
appears by the bill
ers set forth do not thin the meaning of an of the United controversy * * *

d and determined
and this court has nder or enforce any or decree. Furthll does not state
to entitle the com-Virginia to the re-
or to any relief, wn right or as owners of the cer-
and described

is not sufficiently t forth the claims ied upon, but the indefinite proper hurried to the office of Dr. T. C.

Firebaugh, where the injuries of the venturesome little unfortunate were dressed.

It is believed the boy's eyes were not injured.—Harrisonburg News.

Some Very Old Whiskey.

While digging after a sassafras root on the bank of Elk near the Webster Springs Hotel one day last week, A. G. Cogar uncovered a pint bottle of "homemade" corn whiskey, which he believes to have been hidden in the roots of the tree by Quince Harris twenty-nine years ago. Harris made a great deal of this kind of whiskey here about that time, and as some of our citizens have not yet forgotten the palatable taste peculiar to the Harris whiskey, they recognized it at once. The cork in the bottle was decayed down to the last quarter of an inch, but this much was still firm and protected the contents from becoming diluted with water and filled with dirt. Being in glass, the liquor had improved little if any by age, but Mr. Cogar says a spoonful of it has as much strength as a half pint of the booze commonly dispensed now-days. There is probably not another drop of the famous Quince Harris whiskey in existence, he having been dead for many years.
—Webster Echo.

Pay Cash for Bride.

Columbus, Ind., March 19—engagement of John Quinn, 85 years, a retired farmer of Creek Township, Barthow county, and Mrs. Lucinda rance, of Hope, age 70 years,

Route of travel, and time travel at Richmond.

Quarters in Richmond
provided.

Let old Veterans remain past, and embrace, perfect opportunity "to eluwith their old Comrades

ROBERT W.

Maj Gen. Co.

A. C. L. GAREWOOD,

Adj. General.

James's Exposition

The Hall of Congre-
long and 160 feet wid 62 feet wide.

Auditorium: 150x

Mining and Metal
ing: 100x250 feet.

Smelter: 50x100

Manufacturers'

Arts' Palace: 280x

Machinery and

Palace: 250x550 fe

States' Exhibit

feet.

Hygienic and M

100x250 feet.

Pure foods b

feet.

History and F ace: 124x129 fee

Education B

feet.

Pocahontas

feet.

Mothers' an

ing: 60x100 fee

Children's

50x82 feet.

Model Scho

Schoolroom:

Iron Shops

Village: 48x

Pottery &

Crafts Villag

Copper, S

of the personal estate of Brown N. Gal-ford, dec'd

8. United States vs. Mitchel Sheets.

00. Mitchel Sheets was given a hearing by- this morning before Commissioner P. D.
00. Yeager for carrying on the business of g retail liquor dealer at Cass. Sheets was indicted at the last term of court and fined, but commissioner Yeager did not s think the evidence warranted holding him for the United States Court where the law is somewhat different from the State courts, requiring at least two witnesses to a sale to hold the accused.